

Curious... to know more about it!

The Festival Europa Cantat is for everybody, especially curious people. Curious singers and curious people who want to sing, curious conductors and curious people who want to meet who will conduct us, curious composers and those curious to know new compositions, curious listeners and curious singers who want to be listened to.

These are people who every three years get together in a European city for ten days, in an interactive but non competitive environment, who let their voices, ears, eyes and hearts beat the time. The same people who let their memories be enriched by new faces, music, colors and their diaries be filled by new names, their bags by new scores, their mouths by new tastes and their lives by new and healthy energy. And all this is golden..

So, if you are curious, and you can't wait to join our musical offers, we invite you to read these paragraphs with the same attention. This website assists whoever wants to actively participate in the Festival Europa Cantat XVIII and take the first step: choose an activity, apply and organize your stay in Torino.
