

Hilary Llystyn Jones (UK)

Hilary Llystyn Jones born in Llandudno, North Wales is well known for training many Cathedral Choristers here in England as well as Sweden, Norway and America. She is also in demand as a teacher of all ages training professional and amateurs. Hilary has been involved in the training of the RSCM Millennium Youth Choir since its founding in 1999. In 2002 she was made an Associate of the RSCM and in 2006 an Honorary Member of the Guild of Church Musicians for her contribution to music and worship in the church.

She has worked very closely with Kiereen Locke, voice care specialist for the Estill Voicecraft UK, as well as with Sam Brookes, who is in great demand as a teacher of show music and classical singing in London.

Currently, Hilary is associated with thirteen choirs, both at home and abroad.
