

Cecchi Point

Via Antonio Cecchi 17

Cecchi Point aims to give a productive response to city dwellers' cultural interests . It is an ideal meeting place where the latest knowledge may be experimented, thanks to the young experts who collaborate with the Centre. Young people will be able to draw on their valuable teaching. The space is open to anyone who is interested in music, theatre, video art, graphic design, visual arts and literature. Thanks to the significant resources made available at Cecchi Point, young people will be able to take advantage of the rehearsal and recording room and equipment to create music and art. They will be able to take part in shows and concerts or improve their own skills through courses and workshops at the Center.
