

Museo del Carcere "Le Nuove"

Via Paolo Borsellino 3

The Carceri were built in 1869 and used as a prison until the '70s. Symbol of the Resistance, now it houses a museum that offers tours designed to guide the visitor in the rare Panopticon architectural plan. The criminal prison has the grim primacy of having hosted the last partisans condemned to death before Liberation. It's a poignant testimony of the miserable condition in which they poured the detainees until a few decades ago.
