

C5 Made in Italy

A real Renaissance of choral composition is flourishing in Italy, with echoes and performances all over the world. To propose a significant selection of this repertoire you will find one of its greatest admirers and international promoters.

Music by Corrado Margutti, Lorenzo Donati, Elena Camoletto, Enrico Miaroma and other Italian living composers.

Programme excerpts

(it could be subject to change)

I. Defrancesco

Scoita l'ega ciantar

E. Miaroma

Farewell

S. Sentinelli

Riuscirà la nostra voce

length

7 days with a free day on Tue 31st July

final performance

Thursday 2 August

for mixed

where

Teatro Gobetti

Gary Graden (US/SE)

Born in the USA, is choral conductor at St. Jacob's Church in Stockholm and high in demand as a conductor, teacher and adjudicator throughout the world. He's specialized in contemporary repertoire and works with vocal and instrumental improvisation too.

visit website www.choir.nu