

Bioglio (BI) - Chiesa della Beata Vergine Assunta

Piazza Vittorio Veneto

Bioglio's inhabitants, in the provincial territory of Biella, are a little more than a thousand. Set between the Alps, this small town manages important sites of worship: Villa Sella, a sanctuary dedicated to Our Lady, the Santuario di Banchette and the site of Rondollere, in which several finds of an archeological-metallurgic settlement have been discovered. In the small town centre stands the Chiesa della Beata Vergine Assunta, a late Romanesque jewel which is accessed through an arcaded cloister.

Events Hosted

- Discovering Piemonte - 8/03/2012