

Out of Time (IT)

Out Of Time percussion quartet was founded in Torino, in 2007, by four young students of the Conservatory "G. Verdi". After having established a good friendship and having reached a high technical and artistic level, they decided to create a musical project. Despite their young age, they have obtained many achievements by participating in major international events and competitions.

