

Veljo Tormis (EE)

The Estonian composer Veljo Tormis won wider recognition with his choral music. Tormis is famous for his imaginative use of authentic archaic folk material, Estonian and of other peoples. He is interested in the meaning of singing, and often working together with ethnologists he always goes deeply into the background of the songs he is using.

