

Magnificat Youth Choir (HU)

The Magnificat Youth Choir was founded in 1990 by Valéria Szebellédi, and has been led by her ever since. Its members studied or still pursue studies in the special music classes of Erkel Ferenc School in Budapest. As well as giving regular concerts, the choir is in demand with Hungary's top orchestras and ensembles, and is broadcasted by Hungarian Radio. They have recorded seven CDs with wide repertoire of sacred and secular music.
