

Inessa Bodyako (BY)

She was born in 1972 in Vitebska and she graduated of the Belarus State Academy of Music in the class of V. Rovdo. She is the head of the choral conducting division, artistic director of the students' choir, teacher of choral conducting and history of Russian choral music in Belarussian State Academy of Music.

From 2001 to 2008 she was a chorus master of the Academic Chorus of National Television and Radio Broadcasting Company of Republic of Belarus and founder and conductor, from 2000 to 2005, of Chamber chorus Cantemus becoming the prize-winner of the international choral competitions in Italy (Arezzo, Gorizia), Spain (Tolosa), Poland (Hajnowka), Belarus (Minsk). She won the prize to the best conductor on V International festival of orthodox church chanting (Minsk, Belarus) and XXXIX International choral competition Seghizzi (Gorizia, Italy).

Inessa was the juror of many national and international competitions, gave master classes in Germany and France, was responsible for a great number of choral projects in Belarus including Open Conductor's Competition named after V. Rovdo (2009), Choral pages of the XX Century, female chorus Magic Lillies. In 2011 she won three gold certificates at VI International Harmonie Festival in Limburg (Germany).

- Orthodox Liturgy

visit website
www.choirbgam.by