

News on the music expo!

Are you a music publisher or do you organise musical events? Don't miss our music expo: you will have the chance to promote your activity and meet a whole choral world!

Singers, conductors, composers, ateliers' and other programmes' directors and forward-looking festivals' guests and among them a lot of national choral federation presidents will come and visit your booth at the music expo. It will be a unique and unmissable experience to promote and introduce your work to the participants!
