

Conservatorio G. Verdi

Torino, Piazza Bodoni

From February 1936, the Academy of music changed his name from "Istituto Musicale Giuseppe Verdi" to "Regio Conservatorio di Musica Giuseppe Verdi di Torino". Since that day, the school was able to issue official titles for professional music profiles. Today, more than six hundred students attend the school, and one hundred and thirty professors teach music here. The main base has a 690 seats in a wonderful auditorium, at the first floor there's the instruments gallery. In annex's first floor we find teaching rooms and a library with several and useful cultural materials.
